Berlin Calling

Drama, Comedy, Musical (2008), dir. Hannes Stöhr.

Martin Schultz was a citizen of East Germany when he was convicted of manslaughter in July of 1989. Martin is released in 2001, and he discovers the Berlin he knew is a thing of the past, with East and West Germans free to travel back and forth as they please, the dividing wall a thing of the past, and the city unfamiliar after over a decade of new construction. Martin tries to start his life over again with his former wife Manuela and son Rokko, but they seem nearly as foreign as Berlin's new terrain, and Manuela's new lover advises Martin to keep his distance. Martin ends up taking a job at an adult shop and falls into a life of petty crime with his co-worker Ludmila. (www.amazon.com)

All movies shown at the German Movie Night have English subtitles. Admission is free, and the door is open to everyone. Free pizza will be served!
