Course Description

This course will introduce students to the language and culture of German-speaking countries, using both prepared and authentic materials with theme-related vocabulary and grammatical structures. Students will have the opportunity to practice listening, reading, writing, and speaking in German through in-class activities and homework assignments.

The program of the course corresponds to the Level A1 (Elementary) of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), a widely accepted European standard for language proficiency.

By the end of the semester students will be able to:

- understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type
- introduce themselves and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people they know and things they have
- interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.

More specifically, students will be able to:

- talk about themselves, their families, and their origins
- talk about weather and clothing
- order food and drinks in a restaurant or a café, discuss food and cooking, use cooking recipes
- discuss different living situations, talk about houses, rooms, etc.
- talk about their time and make appointments
- orient themselves in a German-speaking urban setting and ask for directions
- talk about things that happened in the past;
- talk about professions, job, study, recreation, and daily life
- talk about some major landmarks and places of interest of the German-speaking countries
- talk about health and health issues
- express their intentions, obligations and necessities.

The course is taught in German with some explanation of grammar points in English.

Study Materials

Main Textbook • Required

Hermann Funk and Christina Kuhn. Studio [21]. Grundstufe A1: Gesamtband Deutsch-Englisch. Kurs- und Übungsbuch mit DVD-ROM. Berlin: Cornelsen, 2015. ISBN: 978-3-06-520105-6.

The package contains the textbook and the DVD-ROM with e-book, audio, interactive exercises and videoclips. The package is available at the Rutgers Bookstore and elsewhere online.

Grammar Book • Recommended

Cecile Zorach, Charlotte Melin, Elizabeth A. Kautz. English Grammar for Students of German: The Study Guide for Those Learning German. 6th ed. Ann Arbor, MI: The Olivia & Hill Press, 2014. ISBN-13: 9780934034432.

Each chapter covers a grammar point: i.e., a part of speech (noun, verb, pronoun), a word's function in a sentence (subject, direct object, indirect object), or a grammatical term (tense, conjugation, declension, gender). It explains both German and English grammars as they relate to each other and points out similarities, differences, and explains typical difficulties.

Handouts

Handouts are distributed in class.

Course Websites

Sakai

Sakai (<http://sakai.rutgers.edu>) is the main website for the course. All students officially enrolled in this course already have access to it. Students who do not have access need to contact the instructor. Students should check the website frequently for announcements and assignments.

Quizlet

Quizlet (<https://quizlet.com/class/4848249>) is the site with vocabulary lists for the course. It contains different learning activities based on each list. The links on p. 7–10 of the PDF version of the Syllabus are linked to quizlets on this site. Although the use of the Quizlet site is optional, experience shows that students who use it learn vocabulary faster and in a more entertaining way.

Course Requirements

Class Participation • 15%

Active class participation is crucial for language learning. The following are the rubrics for participation:

	Attentiveness	Contribution	Use of German
Expectations are met (90–100%)	The student always pays attention.	The student is always eager to contribute to class discussion, exercises, and group work. The student often asks questions. The student always volunteers answers.	The student speaks only German during class.
Expectations are almost met (80–89%)	The student pays attention most of the time.	The student is usually eager to contribute to class discussion, exercises, and group work. The student occasionally asks questions and volunteers answers most of the time.	The student speaks German almost always during class.
Expectations are barely met (70–79%)	The student sometimes pays attention.	The student is occasionally eager to contribute to class discussion, exercises, and group work. The student occasionally asks questions and sometimes volunteers answers.	The student speaks German most of the time during class, but sometimes still switches to English.
Expectations are not met (65–69%)	The student rarely pays attention.	The student almost never contributes to class discussion, exercises, and group work. The student almost never asks questions or volunteers answers.	The student speaks German some of the time during class, and often switches to English.

Homework Assignments • 15%

- The homework assignments listed in the Syllabus must be completed online on the Sakai website by the deadline indicated. The assignments will automatically close after the deadline; students who have not submitted the assignment will automatically get a zero grade for that assignment.
- Note: There will be homework assignments not listed on the Syllabus given by the instructor during class.

Vocabulary Quizzes • 10%

Learning vocabulary is a crucial part of mastering a language. In the beginning of each class session students will write a 3-minute quiz based on the vocabulary portion learned for that day. The Syllabus contains links to online quizlets for learning and reviewing vocabulary for each session.

Oral Tests • 15%

During the semester students will complete three speaking tasks of increasing length and complexity that will be recorded outside the classroom using the online tool Vocaroo (<http://vocaroo.com>) and sent to the instructor by e-mail. The detailed instructions for each oral test will be uploaded on Sakai. These tasks will allow the students to demonstrate their breadth of vocabulary, fluency, comprehensibility, and mastery of grammar structures.

Examinations • 45%

- ★ The Midterm Examination (20%) will take place on Wednesday, October 25 (Session 25), in Scott Hall, Room 221.
- ☆ The Final Examination (25%) will take place on the date announced.

Communication with the Instructor

@ E-Mail

The best way to contact the instructor outside the classroom is to e-mail anthony.kosar@rutgers.edu. Generally the e-mails are answered within two business days. The e-mail subject line should start with 101 – FirstName LastName, e.g. 101 – Michael Smith – Question re... This will help direct the message to the correct folder for quick processing. If the subject line is formatted differently, the message may be read with delay.

Progress Reports

On the dates indicated in the Syllabus, students will write short progress reports, where they reflect upon the course and their individual progress. They will describe what they have learned, what more they would like to learn, what aspects of the course they like or dislike and why. The reports are not graded. They help the instructor better coordinate the students' expectations and progress with the learning goals of the course. The reports have to be sent as *.pdf files named 101 – Progress Report # – FirstName LastName.pdf, e.g. 101 – Progress Report 2 – Michael Smith.pdf and attached to an e-mail message sent to anthony.kosar@rutgers.edu with the subject line 101 – FirstName LastName – Progress Report #, e.g. 101 – Progress Report 2 – Michael Smith.

Mandatory Office Hours

The students will be required to attend two mandatory office hours (students are always welcome during regular office hours indicated on p. 1). This will give the students an opportunity to work with the instructor on individual language and skill needs and discuss individual questions and concerns. The sign-up sheet for the mandatory office hours will be circulated in class.

Recommended Activities

1-Credit Introductory German Courses

The two courses below are designed primarily for students enrolled in Elementary German 101 and 102. Both are 1-credit courses and have no exam at the end. Both of these courses will give the students an additional opportunity to practice German at an introductory level.

103 • German for Travel • Wednesdays 2:50 PM – 4:10 • AB-2200

This course will introduce you to the language and culture of German-speaking countries focusing on the language competencies particularly relevant in travel situations. You will learn to speak about yourself in general and as traveler; ask basic travel questions; discuss your travel interests; learn about German-speaking countries and their inhabitants; orient yourself regarding the means of transportation and accommodations used in Europe; and learn to purchase tickets and book hotel rooms on German-language websites.

104 • German Conversation • Thursdays 1:10 – 2:30 • SC-201

This course will introduce you to the language and culture of German-speaking countries focusing on the language competencies particularly relevant for oral communication in everyday situations. You will learn how to speak about yourself; ask basic questions; share basic information about your family and relatives; speak about your studies; speak about objects relevant to everyday situations; speak about the weather; and express your likes and dislikes.

German Movie Nights

All Rutgers students of German are invited to German Movie Nights organized bi-weekly. The movies are shown in German with English subtitles. Admission is free. For more information contact Lena Claus at lena.claus@gmail.com.

Department and School Policies

Academic Integrity

Violation of academic integrity is an extremely serious matter; it can lead to a student's failing the course and being referred to the University's Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action. When referring to ideas other than their own, students should always acknowledge their sources clearly and completely, whether they are quoting or paraphrasing. Note also that use of online translation services is not permitted as a tool for generating work submitted for course credit. Please see the University's policies on academic integrity at <http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu> and discuss with the instructor any questions about this and related issues.

Attendance

All students must attend regularly and arrive prepared. If a student expects to miss one or two classes, he/she should use the University Self-Reporting Absence website (<https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra>) to indicate the date and the reason for the absence. An e-mail notification is automatically sent to the instructor. Those who miss more than two class sessions without a compelling excuse should expect a one-step reduction in the course grade (i.e. an A becomes a B+, a B+ becomes a B). Every additional three absences may entail a further one-step grade-reduction. Three late arrivals count as one absence.

Note: It is the responsibility of the student who has been absent (for any reason) to find out what he/she has missed and obtain materials that may have been handed out.

Use of Electronic Devices

Cell phones and all other electronic devices (iPods, iPads, tablets, audio players, etc.) must be turned off during class out of respect for fellow students and the instructor.

Assistance and Support Services

Additional Assistance

Students are encouraged to come to their instructor's office hours with any questions and problems pertaining to class. Any student who needs additional help should contact the Learning Resource Center or the Department's tutors as soon as possible. Further details can be found at the Department website: <http://german.rutgers.edu>.

Disability Support Services

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of its educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, students with a disability have to familiarize themselves with procedures and policies regarding disability support services at the following website: <http://ods.rutgers.edu>. It is recommended that students seeking accommodations begin filing paperwork as soon as possible as the documentation review process may take up to 30 business days. Students are encouraged to speak with the instructor about these issues at the beginning of the term. All such conversations will be kept strictly confidential.
