Course Description

This course will introduce students to the language and culture of German-speaking countries focusing on the language competencies particularly relevant for oral communication in everyday situations.

The course consists of six thematically connected modules two sessions each:

1. Hallo! Ich heie... • In this module, students learn to speak about themselves. They prepare to provide a basic information about themselves and engage in a simple dialog with people they might meet. They learn how to greet people, introduce oneself, and say goodbye.
2. Meine Familie • In this module, students learn how to speak about their family members, and ask questions about the family.
3. Mein Studium • In this module, students learn how to speak about the university and their studies.
4. Mein Zimmer • This module focuses on the inanimate objects around us relevant to our everyday situations, such as house, room, classroom, and the objects in them.
5. Wie ist das Wetter heute? • This module focuses on the discussion of weather. Students learn to describe the weather and ask questions about it.
6. Was machen Sie gern? In this module, students learn how to express the likes and dislikes as well as basic comparisons.

By the end of the semester students will be able to:

- speak about themselves;
- ask basic questions;
- share basic information about their families and relatives;
- speak about their studies;
- speak about objects relevant to everyday situations;
- speak about the weather;
- express likes and dislikes.

The course is taught in German with some explanation of grammar points and cultural references in English.

Course Requirements

Class Participation • 24%

Active class participation is crucial for language learning. The following are the rubrics for participation:

Recommended Activities

German Movie Nights

All Rutgers students of German are invited to German Movie Nights organized bi-weekly at Bishop Quad, Leupp Hall, Hogwarts Lounge College Avenue. The movies are shown in German with English subtitles. Admission is free. For the exact dates please check the department homepage or ask your instructor.

Departmental Policies

- Attendance

All students must attend regularly and arrive prepared; if you expect to miss one or two classes, please use the University absence reporting website <https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra/> to indicate the date and reason for your absence. An email is automatically sent to me. Those who miss more than two class sessions without a compelling excuse should expect a one-step reduction in the course grade (i.e. an A becomes a B+, a B+ becomes a B). Every additional three absences may entail a further one-step grade-reduction. Three late arrivals count as one absence. Note: It is the responsibility of students who have been absent (for any reason) to find out what they have missed and obtain materials that may have been handed out.

- Cell Phones

Cell phones and all other technological devices (beepers, iPads, tablets, iPods, audio players...) must be turned off during class out of respect for the instructor and fellow students. Please schedule all important phone communications outside of class time.

- Disability Support Services

Students who may be requesting accommodations due to disabilities are encouraged to familiarize themselves with procedures and policies regarding disability support services at the following website: <http://disabilityservices.rutgers.edu/>. It is recommended that students seeking accommodations begin filing paperwork as soon as possible as the documentation review process may take up to 30 business days. Students are encouraged to speak with teachers about these issues at the beginning of the term. All such conversations will be kept strictly confidential.

- Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are an extremely serious matter, and can lead to a student's failing the course and being referred to the University's Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action. When referring to ideas other than your own, always acknowledge your sources clearly and completely, whether you are quoting or paraphrasing. Note also that use of online translation services is not permitted as a tool for generating work that you submit for course credit. Please see the University's policies on academic integrity at <http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/>, and discuss with your instructor any questions you may have about this and related issues.

- Additional Assistance

Students are encouraged to come to their instructor's office hours with any questions and problems pertaining to class. Any student who needs additional help should contact the Learning Resource Center or the Department's tutors as soon as possible. Additional practice is available at the conversation tables offered each semester at the Language Institute. Informal conversation sessions are also held weekly in the Rutgers Student Center. Check the Department website for further details: <http://german.rutgers.edu>.

Expert Language Learner Workshop Series

 Are you learning a language and want to streamline your progress? Or are you learning a language but are still dissatisfied with your results? Struggling with memorizing vocabulary? Constantly make grammar mistakes? Or you don't know how to really start reading? Do you become self-conscious when it comes to speaking? Would you like to know more about how the Internet can help you master a language?

If you answer "yes" to one or more of these questions, this free workshop series is for you.

The Expert Language Learner Series is offered at The Language Center to undergraduate and graduate students learning any language. The goal of the series is to help language learners develop and strengthen language learning skills by providing very practical information on language learning strategies and techniques, explaining what usually works and what doesn't, and giving expert advice on an individual basis.

The series consists of five 1-hour workshops conveniently scheduled in the beginning of the Fall Semester 2018. You may attend all five workshops or just some. If you attend four out of five, you will be awarded the Expert Language Learner Certificate from The Language Center at Rutgers. Registration is free, but space is limited, so please register early. Questions about the registration should be directed to Katherine Armbruster (armbruster@langlab.rutgers.edu). Other questions should be directed to Dr. Alexander E. Pichugin (pichugin@rutgers.edu).

The workshops take place in the Academic Building, Room 2250, and are scheduled as follows:

1. Acquiring Vocabulary	Monday, September 10,	4:30 – 5:30 p.m.
2. Mastering Grammar	Monday, September 17,	4:30 – 5:30 p.m.
3. Developing Reading Competency	Monday, September 24,	4:30 – 5:30 p.m.
4. Developing Speaking Skills	Monday, October 01,	4:30 – 5:30 p.m.
5. Online and Mobile Learning	Monday, October 08,	4:30 – 5:30 p.m.
