Course Description

In this course students will further develop their competencies in the German language and culture of the German-speaking countries towards the upper intermediate level, using both prepared and authentic materials with theme-related vocabulary and grammatical structures. Students will have the opportunity to practice listening, reading, writing, and speaking in German through various in-class activities and homework assignments.

Using a variety of media, such as written texts, video, and audio clips, students will explore the course's eight major themes: Fairy Tales; Laws, Rights and Responsibilities; Digital World; Food; Nature; Job World; Love; and Books and Reading.

The program of the course corresponds to Level B2.1, which is the first half of Level B2 (Upper Intermediate) of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), a widely accepted European standard for language proficiency.

By the end of this semester, students will be able to:

- talk about the fairy tales
- compare images
- write an advertisement
- talk about rights and responsibilities
- express knowing and not knowing
- express suppositions
- complain about something
- resolve conflicts
- write a complaint
- provide advice
- talk about media and its use
- analyze and comment on a graphic
- leave a voicemail message
- speak about food and meals
- comment on statements
- negotiate, confirm, and order things
- analyze and summarize a text
- express ideas about nature
- describe a place
- talk about travel destinations
- speak about educational content
- discuss jobs
- talk about job search and application
- ask and answer questions about a résumé
- compose an application letter
- talk about relationships
- discuss a hypothesis
- describe spatial positions
- describe and comment on impressions
- write a critical comment
- talk about books and reading habits
- discuss advantages and disadvantages
- formulate one's own position
- lead a discussion
- interrupt / resume speaking at a discussion
- write a story to the end

By the end of the 231/232 sequence, students will be able to:

- understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in their field of specialization;
- interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party;
- produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

The course is taught in German with some explanation of grammar points in English.

Study Materials

Main Textbook • Required

Hermann Funk, Britta Winzer-Kiontke, & Christina Kuhn. Studio: Die Mittelstufe · Deutsch als Fremdsprache. B2: Band 1. Kurs- und Übungsbuch. Berlin: Cornelsen, 2019. ISBN: 978-3-06-020094-8.

The package contains the textbook and the Audio CD with audio texts for the exercises. The package is available at the Rutgers Bookstore and elsewhere online.

The link to the online version of the book: https://static.cornelsen.de/bgd/97/83/06/02/00/94/8/9783060200948_x1LIAB

Grammar Book • Recommended

Cecile Zorach, Charlotte Melin, Elizabeth A. Kautz. English Grammar for Students of German: The Study Guide for Those Learning German. 6th ed. Ann Arbor, MI: The Olivia & Hill Press, 2014. ISBN-13: 9780934034432.

Each chapter covers a grammar point: i.e., a part of speech (noun, verb, pronoun), a word's function in a sentence (subject, direct object, indirect object), or a grammatical term (tense, conjugation, declension, gender). It explains both German and English grammars as they relate to each other and points out similarities, differences, and explains typical difficulties.

Handouts are distributed in class.

Course Website

Canvas

Canvas (<https://tit.rutgers.edu/canvas>) is the main website for the course. Canvas contains the required course materials and assignments. It is also used for in-class vocabulary quizzes.

All students enrolled in this course should already have access to its Canvas website. Students who do not have access need to contact the instructor. Students should check the website frequently.

A desktop or laptop computer is recommended for completing course assignments – not a smartphone or tablet. Most browsers (e.g., Firefox, Chrome, Edge, Internet Explorer, Safari) can be used with Canvas. Students can also use mobile devices to access Canvas from an updated browser (i.e., latest two browser versions) on an Android or iOS device. The list of supported browsers can be found at <https://guides.instructure.com/m/67952/1/720329-which-browsers-does-canvas-support>. Rutgers Libraries have computers available for student use.

Students having any technical questions or issues with Canvas or needing technical assistance should contact the Rutgers Online Learning Helpdesk (athelp@canvas.rutgers.edu • 877.361.1134, available 24/7).

Course Requirements

Class Participation • 10%

Active class participation is crucial for language learning. The following are the rubrics for participation:

	Attentiveness	Contribution	Use of German
Expectations are met (90–100%)	The student always pays attention.	The student is always eager to contribute to class discussion, exercises, and group work. The student often asks questions. The student always volunteers answers.	The student speaks only German during class.
Expectations are almost met (80–89%)	The student pays attention most of the time.	The student is usually eager to contribute to class discussion, exercises, and group work. The student occasionally asks questions and volunteers answers most of the time.	The student speaks German almost always during class.
Expectations are barely met (70–79%)	The student sometimes pays attention.	The student is occasionally eager to contribute to class discussion, exercises, and group work. The student occasionally asks questions and sometimes volunteers answers.	The student speaks German most of the time during class, but sometimes still switches to English.
Expectations are not met (< 70%)	The student rarely pays attention.	The student almost never contributes to class discussion, exercises, and group work. The student almost never asks questions or volunteers answers.	The student speaks German some of the time during class, and often switches to English.

Homework Assignments • 25%

- The homework assignments listed in the Syllabus must be completed on the Canvas website by the deadline indicated. The assignments will automatically close after the deadline; students who have not submitted the assignment will automatically get a zero grade for that assignment.
- Note: There will be homework assignments not listed on the Syllabus given by the instructor during class.

Vocabulary Quizzes • 10%

Learning vocabulary is a crucial part of mastering a language. In the beginning of each class session students will perform a 3-minute quiz based on the vocabulary portion learned for that session. Students will perform the quiz electronically using their computers with internet access.

Oral Tests • 10%

During the semester students will complete three speaking tasks of increasing length and complexity that will be recorded outside the classroom using Canvas. The instructions for each oral test will be available on Canvas. These tasks will allow the students to demonstrate their breadth of vocabulary, fluency, comprehensibility, and mastery of grammar structures.

Project • 10%

In the second part of the semester students will complete a project based on the material covered in class. The detailed instructions will be introduced in class. These tasks will allow the students to review the vocabulary and grammar structures.

Examinations • 35%

- ★ The Midterm Examination (15%) will take place on Thursday, October 24 (Session 15), in SC-101.
- ☆ The Final Examination (20%) will take place on Tuesday, December 17, 08:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m., in SC-101.

Assessment

Grade Composition

B	80–84
C+	75–79
C	70–74
D	65–69
F	Below 65

Communication with the Instructor

@ E-Mail

The best way to contact the instructor outside the classroom is to e-mail pichugin@rutgers.edu. Please do not send messages via Canvas. Generally, the e-mails are answered within two business days. The e-mail subject line should start with 231 – FirstName LastName, e.g. 231 – Michael Smith – Question re... (Please mind the spaces). This will help direct the message to the correct folder for quick processing. If the subject line is formatted differently, the message may be read with delay.

Progress Reports

On the dates indicated in the Syllabus, students will write short progress reports, where they reflect upon the course and their individual progress. They will describe what they have learned, what more they would like to learn, what aspects of the course they like or dislike and why. The reports are not graded. They help the instructor better coordinate the students' expectations and progress with the learning goals of the course. The reports have to be put into the text field on Canvas.

Office Hours

The students are welcome to come to the office hours at the times indicated on p. 1. This will give the students an opportunity to work with the instructor on individual language and skill needs and discuss individual questions and concerns. Please note that the semester schedule does not allow the instructor to stay after class to discuss any questions. Students are invited to discuss their questions during the office hours.

Recommended Activity

German Movie Nights

All Rutgers students of German are invited to German Movie Nights organized bi-weekly. The movies are shown in German with English subtitles. Admission is free. For more information follow the German Interest e-mail announcements.

Policies

Academic Integrity

Violation of academic integrity is an extremely serious matter; it can lead to a student's failing the course and being referred to the University's Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action. When referring to ideas other than their own, students should always acknowledge their sources clearly and completely, whether they are quoting or paraphrasing. Note also that use of online translation services is not permitted as a tool for generating work submitted for course credit. Please see the University's policies on academic integrity at <http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu> and discuss with the instructor any questions about this and related issues.

Attendance

All students must attend regularly and arrive prepared. If a student expects to miss one or two classes, he/she should use the University Self-Reporting Absence website (<https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra>) to indicate the date and the reason for the absence. An e-mail notification is automatically sent to the instructor. Those who miss more than two class sessions without a compelling excuse should expect a one-step reduction in the course grade (i.e. an A becomes a B+, a B+ becomes a B). Every additional three absences may entail a further one-step grade-reduction. Three late arrivals count as one absence.

Note: It is the responsibility of the student who has been absent (for any reason) to find out what he/she has missed and obtain materials that may have been handed out.

Electronic Devices

Cell phones and all other electronic devices (iPods, iPads, tablets, audio players, etc.) must be turned off during class out of respect for fellow students and the instructor.

Assistance and Support

Additional Assistance

Students are encouraged to come to their instructor's office hours with any questions and problems pertaining to class. Any student who needs additional help should contact the Learning Resource Center or the Department's tutors as soon as possible. Further details can be found at the Department website: <http://german.rutgers.edu>.

Disability Support Services

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of its educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, students with a disability have to familiarize themselves with procedures and policies regarding disability support services at the following website: <https://ods.rutgers.edu>. It is recommended that students seeking accommodations begin filing paperwork as soon as possible as the documentation review process may take up to 30 business days. Students are encouraged to speak with the instructor about these issues at the beginning of the term. All such conversations will be kept strictly confidential.
