Course Title: Intermediate German I (3 credits)

01:470:131-01; index 03479

Semester: Spring 2015

Course location: CAC Scott Hall - SC201

Course Description:

In this course students will further develop their German language skills, by discussing a variety of cultural topics and themes in the German-speaking world. Through extensive work on expanding vocabulary, reviewing major grammar topics, conversation and composition exercises, the students will strengthen their language skills and develop cultural competency. The course focuses on real communication in meaningful contexts, to develop and consolidate students' speaking, listening, reading and writing abilities at the upper intermediate level.

Using a variety of media, such as texts, video, and audio, students will explore the course's five major themes: Feelings and Experiences/Personal Life, Community Life, Media (influences), Travel, Art. Students will have the opportunity to practice and improve their spoken and written German skills through in-class activities and homework assignments.

The course is taught in German. Active and dedicated participation including homework is expected.

Final Exam: Thursday May 7, 2015, 8 – 11 pm, Scott Hall 201

Essays:

Students will write 5 essays after each chapter theme (Schreibwerkstatt) using vocabulary and structures learned in class. Essays are graded on 1) communicative comprehensibility, 2) quality of the content/information/analysis, 3) use and range of vocabulary, 4) grammatical accuracy, including spelling, capitalization, and correct use of German characters [e.g., ä, ö, ü, ß]. Please type your essays (font 12 & double-spaced). Your revised essay, attached to your first draft, will be averaged for a final grade & is due by the next class. If the deadline is missed the original grade will be kept. Use of a translation engine will be considered cheating (see Academic Integrity Policy)

Expert Language Learner Workshop Series:

This series of workshops is offered at the Institute for Global Languages to undergraduate and graduate students learning any language. The goal of the series is to help language learners develop and strengthen language learning skills by providing very practical information on language learning strategies and techniques, explaining what usually works and what doesn't, and giving expert advice on an individual basis.

The series consists of five 1-hour workshops conveniently scheduled throughout the Spring Semester 2015. Students may attend all five workshops or just some. Students who attend four out of five workshops will be awarded the Expert Language Learner Certificate from the Institute for Global Languages at Rutgers.

The workshops take place in the Institute for Global Languages, College Avenue, 20 Seminary Place, Room 110.

German Movie Nights:

All Rutgers students of German are invited to German Movie Nights organized bi-weekly on every other Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the German House Seminar Room at 172 College Avenue. The movies are shown in German with English subtitles. Admission is free.

Departmental policies:

- Attendance

All students must attend regularly and arrive prepared; if you expect to miss one or two classes, please use the University absence reporting website <https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra/> to indicate the date and reason for your absence. An email is automatically sent to me. Those who miss more than two class sessions without a compelling excuse should expect a one-step reduction in the course grade (i.e. an A becomes a B+, a B+ becomes a B). Every additional three absences may entail a further one-step grade-reduction. Three late arrivals count as one absence. Note: It is the responsibility of students who have been absent (for any reason) to find out what they have missed and obtain materials that may have been handed out.

- Cell Phones

Cell phones and all other technological devices (beepers, iPads, tablets, iPods, audio players...) must be turned off during class out of respect for the instructor and fellow students. Please schedule all important phone communications outside of class time.

- Photocopies

Department photocopying fees add up quickly and impressively; we will therefore need to collect from each student 5 cents per page toward the cost of handouts other than quizzes and tests.

- Disability Support Services

Students who may be requesting accommodations due to disabilities are encouraged to familiarize themselves with procedures and policies regarding disability support services at the following website: <http://disabilityservices.rutgers.edu/>. It is recommended that students seeking accommodations begin filing paperwork as soon as possible as the documentation review process may take up to 30 business days. Students are encouraged to speak with teachers about these issues at the beginning of the term. All such conversations will be kept strictly confidential.

- Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are an extremely serious matter, and can lead to a student's failing the course and being referred to the University's Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action. When referring to ideas other than your own, always acknowledge your sources clearly and completely, whether you are quoting or paraphrasing. Note also that use of online translation services is not permitted as a tool for generating work that you submit for course credit. Please see the University's policies on academic integrity at <http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/>, and discuss with your instructor any questions you may have about this and related issues.
