Course Description

In this course students will further develop their German language skills, by discussing a variety of cultural topics and themes in the German-speaking world. Through extensive work on expanding vocabulary, reviewing major grammar topics, conversation and composition exercises, the students will strengthen their language skills and develop cultural competency. The course focuses on real communication in meaningful contexts, to develop and consolidate students' speaking, listening, reading and writing abilities at the upper intermediate level.

Using a variety of media, such as texts, video, and audio, students will explore the course's five major themes: Feelings and Experiences/Personal Life, Community Life, Media (influences), Travel, Art.

Students will have the opportunity to practice and improve their spoken and written German skills through in-class activities and homework assignments.

The course is taught in German. Active and dedicated participation including homework is expected.

PREREQUISITES: German 101 & 102 or equivalent, or placement test

LEARNING GOALS: [AH] Arts and the Humanities: [q] Nature of Languages: Understand the nature of human languages and their speakers.

Essays

Students will write 5 essays after each chapter theme (Schreibwerkstatt) using vocabulary and structures learned in class. Essays are graded on 1) communicative comprehensibility, 2) quality of the content/information/analysis, 3) use and range of vocabulary, 4) grammatical accuracy, including spelling, capitalization, and correct use of German characters [e.g., ä, ö, ü, ß]. Please type your essays (font 12 & double-spaced). Your revised essay, attached to your first draft, will be averaged for a final grade & is due by the next class. If the deadline is missed the original grade will be kept. Use of a translation engine will be considered cheating (see Academic Integrity Policy)

Course Websites

Sakai (<http://sakai.rutgers.edu>) is the general website for our course. All students officially enrolled in this course already have access to it. Students who do not have access need to contact the instructor. Students should check the website frequently for the most recent announcements, worksheets and assignments. Connect: (<http://connect.mheducation.com/class/2016s-102>) is textbook-based website for this course. It is used to complete the regular homework assignments and tests. In order to register, open the URL, click the Register Now button and follow the instructions. Students should use their Rutgers e-mail address as login. If the student has a registration code received with the Kontakte textbook purchased, the code should be used at the registration. If the book has not yet arrived. It is possible to register as a trial for thirty days and insert the code when it arrives with the book purchased.

Recommended Activities

• German Movie Nights

All Rutgers students of German are invited to German Movie Nights organized bi-weekly at the German House Seminar Room at 172 College Avenue. The movies are shown in German with English subtitles. Admission is free. For the exact dates please check the department homepage or ask your instructor.

Communication with the Instructor

@ E-Mail

The best way to contact the instructor outside the classroom is to e-mail janine.wahrendorf@rutgers.edu.

Department and School Policies

Academic Integrity

Violation of academic integrity is an extremely serious matter; it can lead to a student's failing the course and being referred to the University's Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action. When referring to ideas other than their own, students should always acknowledge their sources clearly and completely, whether they are quoting or paraphrasing. Note also that use of online translation services is not permitted as a tool for generating work submitted for course credit. Please see the University's policies on academic integrity at <http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu> and discuss with the instructor any questions about this and related issues.

Attendance

All students must attend regularly and arrive prepared; if you expect to miss one or two classes, please use the University absence reporting website <https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra/> to indicate the date and reason for your absence. An email is automatically sent to me. Those who miss more than two class sessions without a compelling excuse should expect a one-step reduction in the course grade (i.e. an A becomes a B+, a B+ becomes a B). Every additional three absences may entail a further one-step grade-reduction. Three late arrivals count as one absence. Note: It is the responsibility of students who have been absent (for any reason) to find out what they have missed and obtain materials that may have been handed out.

Cell Phones

Cell phones and all other technological devices (beepers, iPods, audio players, etc.) must be turned off during class out of respect for fellow students and the instructor.

Disability Support Services

Students who may be requesting accommodations due to disabilities are encouraged to familiarize themselves with procedures and policies regarding disability support services at the following website: <http://disabilityservices.rutgers.edu>. It is recommended that students seeking accommodations begin filing paperwork as soon as possible as the documentation review process may take up to 30 business days. Students are encouraged to speak with the instructor about these issues at the beginning of the term. All such conversations will be kept strictly confidential.

Additional Assistance

Students are encouraged to come to their instructor's office hours with any questions and problems pertaining to class. Any student who needs additional help should contact the Learning Resource Center or the Department's tutors as soon as possible. Additional practice is available at the conversation tables offered each semester at the Language Institute. Informal conversation sessions are also held weekly in the Rutgers Student Center. Check the Department website for further details: <http://german.rutgers.edu>.

The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the Syllabus.

The latest version of this Syllabus is available on Sakai → Syllabus.
