The Marriage of Maria Braun

Drama (1979) dir. Rainer Werner Fassbinder.

Maria Braun, whose marriage to the soldier Hermann remained unfulfilled due to World War II and his post-war imprisonment, tries to adapt to the realities of post-war Germany. She becomes the wealthy mistress of an industrialist, all the while staying true to her love for Hermann. The film was one of the more successful works of Fassbinder and shaped the image of the New German Cinema in foreign countries. (www.wikipedia.org)
