

The Department of German & The German Living-Learning Community Present:

GERMAN MOVIE NIGHT SERIES

Spring 2015

Wednesday, February 25 at 8pm

German House, 172 College Avenue, Room 102

Milchwald (Milkwood)

Drama (2003), dir. Christoph Hochhäusler.

This is the story of Sylvia, who loses her stepchildren on a shopping trip in Poland. For fear of losing her husband's love, too, she is unable to tell him what has happened and returns home, pretending anything is fine. When realizing the missing of his children, the father starts a desperate retrieval. He is ready to give up anything in order to find them. Sylvia supports him in any way; she tries to comfort him and takes care of his hope's vulnerable flame. For the first time he really needs her. While the children are trying their best to get home, the police fail in detecting their whereabouts. When a very vague trace leads to Poland, the parents hit the road to find their children on their own. (www.imdb.com)

All movies shown at the German Movie Night have English subtitles. Admission is free, and the door is open to everyone. Free popcorn will be served!