Course Description

This course will introduce students to the language and culture of German-speaking countries, using both prepared and authentic materials with theme-related vocabulary and grammatical structures. Students will have the opportunity to practice listening, reading, writing, and speaking in German through in-class activities and homework assignments.

By the end of the semester students will be able to:
• talk about their time, including studies and recreational pursuits;
• express their likes and dislikes;
• talk about things, including their possessions and things they give to others;
• give their opinion on matters of taste or style;
• describe their talents and those of others;
• express their intentions, obligations and necessities;
• describe how they or other people feel;
• talk about things that happened in the past, including their own experiences and those of others;
• talk about shopping, work, and daily life at home;
• describe their career plans.

Students will also learn about cultural perspectives, products and practices of German-speaking countries. Some of the topics addressed this semester include geography and landscape; university studies and professional education; laws and regulations; and customs and holidays.

The course is taught in German with some explanation of grammar points in English.

Homework Assignments – 15%

The homework assignments listed in the Syllabus must be completed online (Connect) by the date indicated. Please note that for each day that an assignment is overdue 10% of its score will be deducted. Note: There will be homework assignments not listed on the Syllabus given by the instructor during class.

Vocabulary quizzes – 10%

Learning vocabulary is a crucial part of mastering a language. Each session students will write a 3-minute quiz based on the vocabulary portion learned for that day. The Syllabus contains links to online tools for learning and reviewing vocabulary for each session. Use of these online tools is optional.

Oral tests (3) – 15%

During the semester students will complete three speaking tasks of increasing length and complexity that will be recorded outside the classroom using the online tool Vocaroo (http://vocaroo.com) and sent to the instructor by e-mail. The detailed instructions for each oral test will be uploaded on Sakai. These tasks will allow the students to demonstrate their breadth of vocabulary, fluency, comprehensibility, and mastery of grammar structures.

Examinations – 45%

The Midterm Examination (20%) will take place at Session 24 (Monday, October 26). The time and place of the Final Examination (25%) will be announced.

Course Websites

Sakai is the general website for the course. You can find it under the following link: http://sakai.rutgers.edu. You should be enrolled and have access automatically if you are a registered Rutgers student and have signed up for the course. If not, then please contact the instructor and he will give you access. Please check the website frequently for the most recent announcements, worksheets and assignments.

Connect is the textbook-based website. You can find it under http://connect.mcgraw-hill.com. You will use it to complete your regular homework assignments and tests. Before you can use this website you will need to register. In order to do so go to http://connect.mheducation.com/class/2015f-101-01 click Register Now button and follow the instructions. Use your Rutgers e-mail address as your login. You will need the registration code that you receive with the Kontakte textbook purchased.

Recommended Activities

Elementary German Laboratory Course
Students of Elementary German I Course are strongly encouraged to enroll in and attend one of the 1-credit elementary German Laboratory Course (01:470:103:01 or 01:470:104:01, whichever better fits yours schedule), an instructor-guided laboratory practicum based on intensive use of media and designed as additional support for mastering the material of German 101.

Expert Language Learner Workshop Series
This series of workshops is offered at the Institute for Global Languages to undergraduate and graduate students learning any language. The goal of the series is to help language learners develop and strengthen language learning skills by providing very practical information on language learning strategies and techniques, explaining what usually works and what doesn’t, and giving expert advice on an individual basis.
The series consists of five 1-hour workshops conveniently scheduled throughout the Fall Semester 2015. Students may attend all five workshops or just some of them. Students who attend four out of five workshops will be awarded the Expert Language Learner Certificate from the Institute for Global Languages at Rutgers.

The workshops take place in the Institute for Global Languages, College Avenue, 20 Seminary Place, Room 110.

1. Acquiring Vocabulary • Wednesday, September 16, 7:30 – 8:30 p.m. 2. Mastering Grammar • Wednesday, September 30, 7:30 – 8:30 p.m. 3. Developing Reading Competency • Wednesday, October 14, 7:30 – 8:30 p.m. 4. Developing Speaking Skills • Wednesday, October 28, 7:30 – 8:30 p.m. 5. Online and Mobile Learning • Wednesday, November 11, 7:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Registration is free, but space is limited to 20 participants, so please register early. For further information and registration please contact pichugin@rutgers.edu.

German Movie Nights
All Rutgers students of German are invited to German Movie Nights organized bi-weekly on every other Wednesday at 8 p.m., starting on September 10, in the German House Seminar Room at 172 College Avenue. The movies are shown in German with English subtitles. Admission is free.

Communication with the Instructor

Email
The best way to communicate with the instructor outside the classroom is to email eva.erber@rutgers.edu.

Progress Reports
On the dates indicated in the Syllabus, you will write short progress reports, where you reflect upon the course and their individual progress. You will describe what you have learned, what more you would like to learn, what aspects of the course you like and dislike and why. The reports are not graded. They will help the instructor better coordinate the students’ expectations and progress with the learning goals of the course. Please send the reports as e-mail attachments to the email: eva.erber@rutgers.edu.

Office Hours
The students will be required to attend one mandatory office hour (you are always welcome during regular office hours). This will give the students an opportunity to work with the instructor on individual language and skill needs and discuss individual questions and concerns. The sign-up sheet will be circulated on the first day of class.

Department and School Policies

Academic Integrity
Violations of academic integrity are an extremely serious matter, and can lead to a student’s failing the course and being referred to the University’s Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action. When referring to ideas other than your own, always acknowledge your sources clearly and completely, whether you are quoting or paraphrasing. Note also that use of online translation services is not permitted as a tool for generating work that you submit for course credit. Please see the University’s policies on academic integrity at http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/, and discuss with your instructor any questions you may have about this and related issues.
Attendance
All students must attend regularly and arrive prepared; if you expect to miss one or two classes, please use the University absence reporting website https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra/ to indicate the date and reason for your absence. An email is automatically sent to me. Those who miss more than two class sessions without a compelling excuse should expect a one-step reduction in the course grade (i.e. an A becomes a B+, a B+ becomes a B). Every additional three absences may entail a further one-step grade-reduction. Three late arrivals count as one absence.

Note: It is the responsibility of students who have been absent (for any reason) to find out what they have missed and obtain materials that may have been handed out.

Electronic Devices
Cell phones and all other technological devices (tablets, iPods, MP3players, etc.) must be turned on silent mode during class out of respect for the instructor and fellow students.

Disability Support Services
Students who may be requesting accommodations due to disabilities are encouraged to familiarize themselves with procedures and policies regarding disability support services at the following website: http://disabilityservices.rutgers.edu/. It is recommended that students seeking accommodations begin filing paperwork as soon as possible as the documentation review process may take up to 30 business days. Students are encouraged to speak with the instructor about these issues at the beginning of the term. All such conversations will be kept strictly confidential.

Additional Assistance
Students are encouraged to come to their instructor’s office hours with any questions and problems pertaining to class. Any student who needs additional help should contact the Learning Resource Center or the Department’s tutors as soon as possible. Additional practice is available at the conversation tables offered each semester at the Language Institute. Informal conversation sessions are also held weekly in the Rutgers Student Center. Check the Department website for further details: http://german.rutgers.edu.

The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the Syllabus.
