Course Description

In this course students will further develop their language skills and cultural awareness by discussing a variety of cultural topics in the German-speaking world. In order to consolidate students’ interpretive, interpersonal, and presentational abilities at the intermediate level, the course focuses on communication in multiple contexts. In-class activities and homework assignments involve extensive work on expanding vocabulary, reviewing major grammar topics, and improving conversational and compositional skills. The course is conducted entirely in German and involves work in small groups, giving students ample opportunities to speak in German and to receive feedback and individual help.

By discussing a large variety of media, such as video, audio, images, factual and literary texts, students will explore five major themes:
1. Personal Life
2. Community Life
3. Media
4. Travel
5. Art

Taught in German.

Core Curriculum Learning Goal:
AHq Arts and the Humanities:
[q] Understand the nature of human languages and their speakers.

2. Supersite Account: Supersite is an important part of the Course. It is the place where you do and submit your homework. See the 5-step Instructions “Setting Up Your Supersite Account” that you have received as a handout on the first day of the course (it is also placed on Sakai). Please refer to the Student Guided Tour (video with audio) to the Supersite, which will help you set-up and navigate your Supersite account: http://bitcast-r.v1.iad1.bitgravity.com/vhl/sstutorial/student_tours/denkmal.html

4. Materials posted on Sakai or distributed in class.

Course Websites

- Sakai is the general website for our course. You can find it under http://sakai.rutgers.edu. The course’s Sakai site will be published shortly before the first class meeting. You should be enrolled and have access automatically if you are a registered Rutgers student and have signed up for the course. If not, then please contact the instructor and she will give you access. Please check the website frequently for the most recent announcements, worksheets, and assignments.

- Supersite is the textbook-based website. You can find it under http://www.vhlcentral.com. You will use it to complete your regular homework assignments and tests. Please refer to the Instructions “Setting Up Your Supersite Account.”
Course Requirements and Assignments

Homework
All homework listed in the Syllabus must be completed online by the date indicated. Please note that for each day that an assignment is overdue 10% of its score will be deducted. Note: There will be homework assignments not listed on the syllabus given by the instructor during class.

Essays (Aufsätze)
To practice your written language skills, you will write an essay (Aufsatz) at the end of each unit. All five essays will be revised at least once, for content and style as well as for grammar. Your first draft will receive corrections, comments, and a grade; your revised essay receives another grade; both will be averaged for a final grade. No late work will be accepted (unless you have arranged in advance for an extension for a compelling reason). Use of a translation engine will be considered cheating! Please see the academic integrity policy below. Please submit your essay in *.docx, *.doc or *.pages format via the Drop Box feature on Sakai. Please title the electronic document ‘[Your name] Aufsatz # Version #’ (e.g. Lisa Müller Aufsatz 1 Version 1).

Unit Tests & Oral Tests
At the end of each unit (Lektion) you will complete an online test (Lektion ## Test) and an oral test (Mündliche Prüfung). They have to be completed at home by the date listed in the Syllabus.

Final Examination
The final examination will take place on Tuesday, December 22, 12:00–3:00 pm, location TBA.

Progress Reports
At the conclusion of the each major theme, the students will write a short progress report, where they reflect upon the course and their individual progress. In the reports the students will describe what they have learned, what more they would like to learn, what aspects of the course they like and dislike and why. These reports will help the instructor better coordinate the students’ expectations and progress with the learning goals of the course. The reports can be in German or in English; they will not be graded. Please use the Drop Box feature on Sakai to submit the reports. Please title the document ‘[Your name] Progress Report #’, (e.g. Lisa Müller Progress Report 1).

Communication with the Instructor
@ E-Mail
The best way to contact the instructor outside the classroom is to send an email to christina.mandt@rutgers.edu. Please include G299 – [your first name] in the subject line, e.g. G299 – Samantha – Question re....

Department and School Policies

Academic Integrity
Violation of academic integrity is an extremely serious matter; it can lead to a student’s failing the course and being referred to the University’s Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action. When referring to ideas other than their own, students should always acknowledge their sources clearly and completely, whether they are quoting or paraphrasing. Note also that use of online translation services is not permitted as a tool for generating work submitted for course credit. Please see the University’s policies on academic integrity at http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu and discuss with the instructor any questions about this and related issues.

Attendance
All students must attend regularly and arrive prepared. If a student expects to miss a class, he/she should use the University Self-Reporting Absence website (https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra) to indicate the date and the reason for the absence. An e-mail notification is automatically sent to the instructor. Those who miss more than two class sessions without a compelling excuse should expect a one-step reduction in the course grade (i.e. an A becomes a B+, a B+ becomes a B). Every additional three absences may entail a further one-step grade-reduction. Three late arrivals count as one absence.

Note: It is the responsibility of the student who has been absent (for any reason) to find out and make up for what she/he has missed as well as obtain materials that may have been handed out.

Cell Phones

Cell phones and all other technological devices (beepers, iPods, audio players, etc.) must be turned off during class out of respect for fellow students and the instructor.

Disability Support Services

Students who may be requesting accommodations due to disabilities are encouraged to familiarize themselves with procedures and policies regarding disability support services at the following website: http://disabilityservices.rutgers.edu. It is recommended that students seeking accommodations begin filing paperwork as soon as possible as the documentation review process may take up to 30 business days. Students are encouraged to speak with the instructor about these issues at the beginning of the term. All such conversations will be kept strictly confidential.

Additional Assistance

1) Students are encouraged to come to their instructor’s office hours with any questions and problems pertaining to class (christina.mandl@rutgers.edu).

2) Any student who needs additional help should contact the Learning Resource Center or the Department’s tutors as soon as possible (http://german.rutgers.edu/german-activities/language-practice-and-tutoring).

3) Additional practice is available at the informal conversation tables offered each semester at the Department and the Language Institute. (http://german.rutgers.edu/german-activities/language-practice-and-tutoring).
